Collected Information:

Neikute-u Venuh, Daughter of Vekelie Venuh and Avelu Venuh, lives in the district of Phek, Nagaland is an example of rural women coming out of their comfort zone and exploring the world.

Bio: (Background of the Candidate)

She comes from a BLP family, and her qualification is BA graduate. After graduation she was unemployed and had no source of income, despite searching for employment. Her father being the only earning member of the family is a farmer, with no fixed monthly income.

Programmatic intervention: Details of training undergone

She heard about DDU-GKY from the PIA representative during mobilization camp. After hearing about the DDU-GKY and its courses, she became interested and met with the mobilization team. After discussing with her parents she decided to join F&B Service-Steward course. After the completion of training, she was placed at Radisson Resort & Spa, Lonavala, with a monthly salary of Rs. 11,324/-. She worked there for a few months, while working there; she got a golden opportunity to work abroad at Oman. Currently she is working at Anandara Resort & Spa, Al Jabal, Oman with a monthly salary of Rs. 33,623/-in hand. With the help of DDU-GKY training, she is also now a earning member of the family and helps her sibling in their education.

In her own words: (Few words from the candidate)

I am very grateful for the DDU-GKY program; it is a very good opportunity for the unemployed youth to start their career. I would like thank PLS Auto Shell Industries Pvt. Ltd. for moulding and grooming us to build our career successfully. To be honest, there are lots of challenges choosing hotel industry as our career. But if you work hard, it is one of the best career paths you can choose. In conclusion, I would like to encourage all the youth who are unemployed to choose DDU-GKY training, make your life sustainable and be a contributing member of the family and become an independent person.
